

Kid Icarus Erico GAME GUIDE

This is the game's title screenshot.

Choose play to begin a new adventure. Choose load if you have a saved game or choose quit if you don't want to play now :)

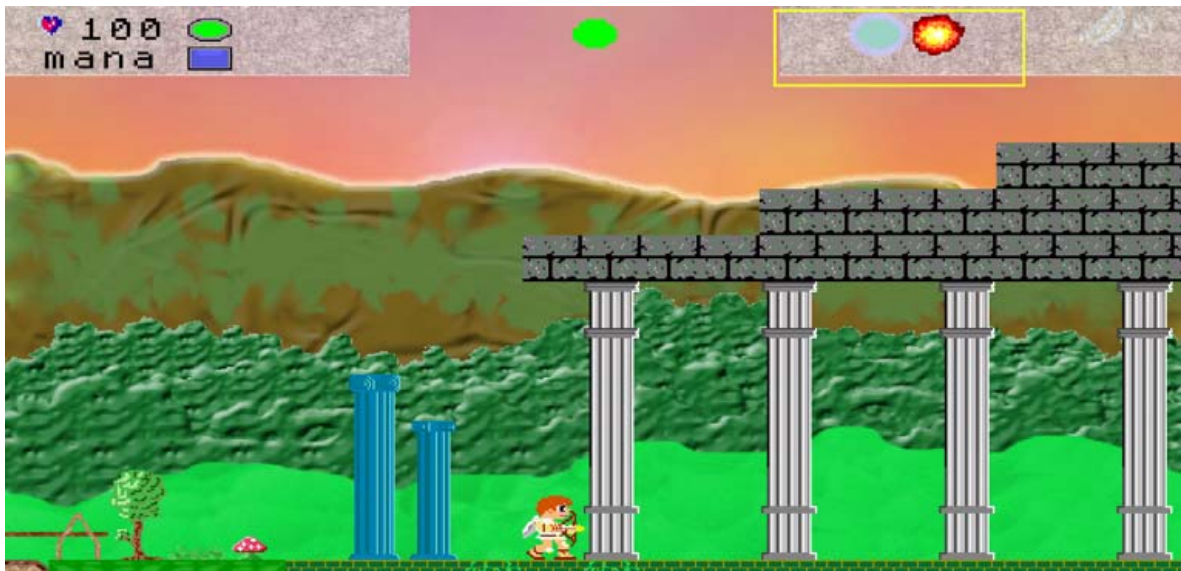

The menu that you have up and left in the screen shows you the number of hearts that you have (experience points). The circle shows your health and can be light green (you are strong!), green (as in the example), yellow, red or black (you are death!).

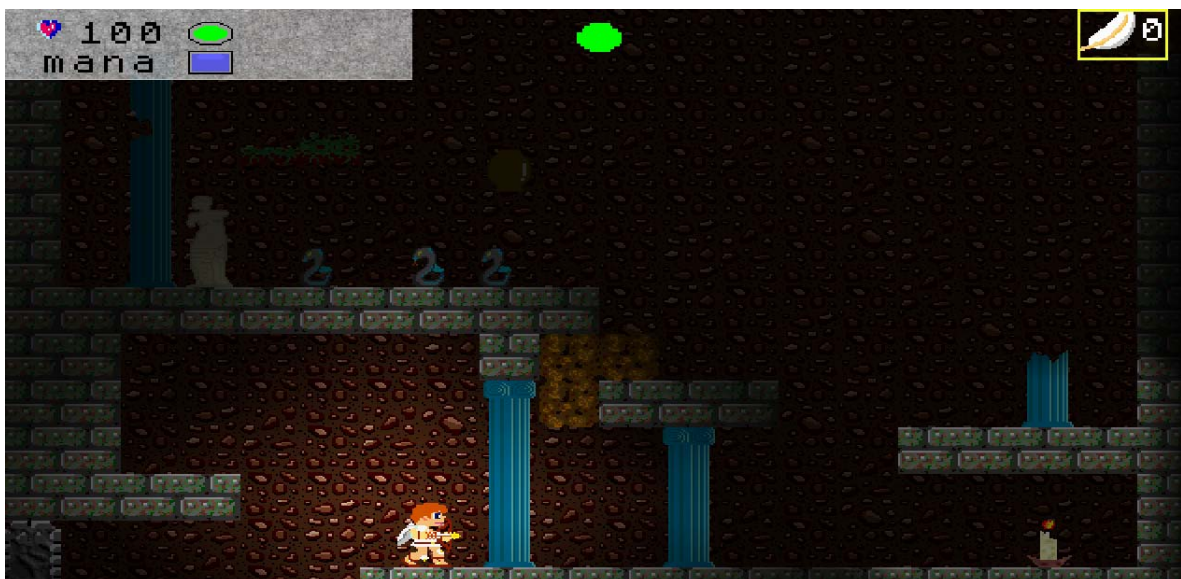

The blue bar shows your mana; is the power to do magic that you have.

To activate the magic, you have to press A key and a menu will appear up and right in the screen. Choose the one which you want with the arrow keys and use it by pressing S key.

To select the father press the down arrow key and jump (Z). It will appear up and right in the screen. The number shows you the number of feathers that you have.

To activate the angel dust press down arrow key and jump (Z) until the icon appear up and right in the screen. It shows the number of times you can use it by pressing jump (only when you need it).
